APPLICATION PROCESS:

After reading two essays "On Being Black and Feeling Blue," and "White Guilt" from Shelby Steele's book, The Content of Our Character, (copies in school library), write a 500-600 word essay:

- 1) Summarizing one of Steele's central arguments, citing illustrative examples from the text.
- 2) Give evidence why you agree or disagree with his perspective from your own experience
- 3) Explore the relevance of Steele's perspective in light of current events

Essays must be typed, 12pt. double-spaced, and attached to application.

Due date is March 8th

PRIZES:

First Place - $3,500 towards tuition

Second Place - $1,500 towards tuition

Essays will be evaluated by representatives of Shelby Steele Foundation.

Winners will be announced at SMA Subject Medal Assembly in May.
